About our school:

Park Brow Community Primary School is a larger-than-average-sized primary school in the heart of the local community of Kirkby. Our dedicated team of staff go above and beyond to break down barriers to learning and attendance ensuring that inclusion is at the forefront of what we do.

We proudly received the Inclusion Quality Mark in November 2023 and it was acknowledged:

‘Their mission statement – ‘together we can make a difference’ – really does shine through.’

The children, staff and Governing Body of Park Brow School are seeking:

- A Headteacher who understands the needs of our community and will provide highly visible leadership whilst instilling a sense of belief, aspiration and high expectation for all within the school community.
- A leader who believes that all children can succeed, regardless of background.
- A highly talented, dynamic and approachable leader who is passionate about learning for all.
- Someone who has strong strategic leadership skills and a commitment to maintaining and further developing high standards of teaching and learning, enabling each and every child to reach their full potential.
- Will further develop the respectful and inclusive nature of our school.
- Work collaboratively with the governing body and the wider school community.
- Demonstrate skill and experience in managing a large staff team.
