

SMSC at Park Brow 26-27

	Spiritual	Moral	Social	Cultural
Assemblies/the me days	- Reflective assemblies develop understanding of the Christian and alternative faiths. - Weekly good work assembly – reflection and celebration of learning. - Christmas/Easter assemblies and productions celebrate key Christian/alternative festivals. - Harvest. - Weekly School assemblies promote thinking and reflection time.	- Macmillan coffee. morning. - Foodbank collection. - Comic Relief. - Red Nose day. - Christmas Jumper Appeal. - Assemblies on anti -bullying week, support whole school weekly focus on strategies to support anti bullying. - E safety week.	- Weekly attendance and star of the week assembly focuses on social skills. - Walk to school week - Road safety. - Transition. - Anti bullying week. - Kirkby School Council. - Knowsley Sports Events.	- Black history month - Celebrations of cultural diversity - Fair-trade week - Recognising and nurturing individual talents. - Raising aspirations.
Clubs	Adventurers.	- Homework club-opportunity for those children who do not get the opportunity to complete homework at home. - Year 6 reading club (3 mornings a week). Children can attend from 8:20am with parents to read together.	- Football club - Soccer Direct clubs - Basketball Club - Sewing club - Choir	- Art club - Creativity club - Lego club - Basketball Team link to school in Toxteth with a high level of ethnic minority. (link School)
Play time provision	Provision allows for a variety of activities including quiet reflection and reading. (Designated reading areas- African Hut ks2, Reading shed ks1)	- Children are encouraged to engage in friendly cooperative play at break and lunchtimes. - Safety and rules are promoted on the playground.	- Children are engaged in peer conversations and games at playtime. - Social groups across year/gender are encouraged. - Adults support children in developing relationships and fair play. - Outdoor gym equipment to promote health and well being.	Books in outdoor reading areas have books from a range of cultures.

SMSC at Park Brow 26-27

			Active Sports staff facilitate games.
Visits and visitors	- KS2 church visits and Christmas production. - Visits to religious buildings.	- Weekly reflective assembly-moral theme. - NSPCC. - Barnados. - Bully Busters. - Knowsley Lady Mayor. - Community Police Officers.	- Author visits throughout the year - CLC visits across the school to ensure preparation for current and future developments in ICT. • Safer Internet.	- Emily Hennesey storyteller- Stories from around the world. - Library visits Trips examples Speke Hall Spaceport Blue planet Museums. Art Galleries. Lake District. Wales. Chester Zoo. Rufford Hall. Kingswood Residential – Northumbria.
School environment	- Places for quiet reflection- quiet room, reading caravan, performing arts room. - Thought provoking displays in shared areas to encourage reflection. • Assembly theme board.	- The entrance hall displays the certificates from the school's charity work and awards for achievement for the school itself and individuals. - Promotion through display of staying safe online.	- Children move quietly throughout school. - Children open door and wish visitors good day. - Positive attitudes and collaborative learning in classrooms. - Monitors – Librarians, play leaders, reading buddies, register monitors etc.	- Art display from different cultures. - Stories from round the world displays.
subjects	- Children asked to reflect on their own learning. - Children asked to think critically: during work on calculations children critically assess their own work and the working of others	Through guided reading children are encouraged to consider characters motives, points of view and consider moral dilemmas.	In lessons children complete a variety of types of activities including peer marking, collaborative learning and group work.	- Children study rich, quality text that come from English and foreign cultures. - Author studies

SMSC at Park Brow 26-27

Non- core /Creative curriculum •	• RE curriculum	• Swimming lessons y2-y6 • Circle –time.	• Disability sport promoted through school (Boccia, New Age Kurling) • PSHE –EG living together, diverse world, support networks, family life. • Newsletters.	• Spanish culture through dedicated Spanish teaching. • RE-sacred books • Wider cultures • 7 wonders of the world • Travel and tourism • British culture
• School website	• School ethos shared with parents • School twitter feed shows evidence of children reflecting on their work and others	• School behaviour and discipline policy on website	• School website links to school twitter feed. The feed covers many aspects of SMSC.	• Creative curriculum is on the website demonstrating the cultural aspects of our curriculum. • Curriculum maps accessible on website.
• Behaviour expectation/rewards/sanctions	• Clear time for reflection and opportunity to reflect and change behaviour at all times.	• Clear rewards and sanctions for positive behavior.	• Individual smileys and class smileys used to encourage own personal target and collaboration. • Expected behavior and code of conduct shared and clear systems in place to ensure clarity.	•